

2018 ESTATE GROWN • CHARDONNAY • MONTEREY

92 POINTS THE tastingpanel MAGAZINE

Named for the official regional designation for the grape crush district that encompasses Monterey, the Scheid Family's District 7 series is a nod to the terroir of Monterey and the brand's new Certified Sustainable designation. Aged in stainless steel tanks (70%) and French oak (30%), delicate aromas of lemon blossom emerge from the glass. The palate is rich, ripe and fresh, with lemon-lime-orange marmalade notes. Vanilla cream comes in mid-way and a dash of salinity kicks in on the finish.
